

SUGGESTED ATTORNEYS BY CELSIA S.A

Carolina Duque Velásquez – Baker & Mckenzie

Lawyer from the Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana, specializing in Constitutional Law of the University of Antioquia and Master of Laws from Boston College. She has more than 15 years of experience, 10 of which have been in structuring, negotiation and closing of financing and local and international projects. She has been recognized since 2012 by international publications such as Chambers & Partners, Legal 500, IFLR 1000 and Best Lawyers both in banking and in finance and projects. Recently, she was also recognized by Chambers Global 2019, positioning herself as one of the most recognized lawyers in the country in the sector.

Carlos Fernando Henao Moreno – UH Abogados

Lawyer from the Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana, with a specialization in Business Law at the Externado de Colombia University and a specialization in Industrial Property, Copyright and New Technologies at the same University and a master's degree in Private Law at the University of Utrecht in the Netherlands. He has more than 15 years of experience, mainly advising companies in the real sector. He has been Secretary General of Productos Familia S.A. and Almacenes Éxito S.A. He has provided advice in the internationalization processes of companies, as well as in various aspects of commercial and corporate law. He is an Arbitrator for the Medellín Chamber of Commerce.

Ana María Londoño Arango – independent lawyer

Lawyer from Eafit University, with more than 15 years of experience as a litigator and consultant in Family and inheritance law.

Juan Bernardo Tascón Ortiz – UH Abogados

Lawyer from the Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana, specializing in Civil Liability and Insurance from the Eafit University and a master's degree in Law from the Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana. He has more than 11 years of experience as a trial attorney, especially in matters of civil liability and insurance, popular and group actions, arbitration and fiscal and state responsibility. He has also provided various consultancies on the conflict resolution, private contracting and insurance. He is a professor of Civil Liability in the undergraduate degree at the Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana, and Law of Obligations in the undergraduate from Eafit University, as well as postgraduate degrees from various universities in the country. He is Referee of the Medellín Chamber of Commerce.

Edgar Elías Muñoz – MUÑOZ AYA Legal

Lawyer from the Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana, specializing in Capital Markets of the Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, Financial Legislation of the Universidad de los Andes, and in Administrative Law of the Pontificia Universidad Javeriana. He also has an LLM from London Metropolitan Univeristy in London and an MBA from the Polytechnic University of Valencia in Spain. He has more than 20 years of experience advising financial institutions and the market of securities on issues related to financial regulation, local and international credits, law corporate, financial derivatives, collective investment and private equity funds, issues local and international, foreign investment, exchange law and treasury operations. He has worked in both the public and private sectors through linking him to law firms first class international and local. He has worked in entities such as: Citibank, Davivienda and the Ministry of Finance and Public Credit.